Excerpt from The Forty-Fifth Illinois: A Souvenir of the Re-Union Held at Rockford, on the Fortieth Anniversary of Its March in the Grand Review; Being the Remarks of Daniel Fish, of Co; G, to Which Is Appended the Substance of the Regiment's History as Preserved in Official Records Mr. President and Comrades: - The time devoted to a regimental reunion, occurring thus late in the afternoon of our lives, seems almost too precious to be wasted upon formal speeches. The common thought of the occasion has found ready and constant expression ever since we began to assemble. The earnest scrutiny of faces and forms which the busy years have remoulded; the kindling light of recognition in eyes dimmed by advancing age; the unstudied exclamations of greeting; the eager clasp of hands long parted -these speak the ruling sentiments of the hour with a natural eloquence which no art can rival. It would be sheer dishonesty in me, however, to pretend that I am not glad of this opportunity to speak briefly in your presence, especially in...
