By Steven Sandor

Heritage House Publishing Co Ltd. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Battle of Alberta: A Century of Hockey's Greatest Rivalry, Steven Sandor, Alberta has long been a big part of the frantic Canadian hockey scene, and even before Alberta became a province in 1905, the intense hockey rivalry between Calgary and Edmonton was in full swing. In "The Battle of Alberta", the rough-and-tumble relationship between these two hockey hotbeds is presented in all its colourful glory. The tussle got its start in 1895 when an all-star team from Calgary journeyed to Edmonton to take on the mighty Thistles and a team of Northwest Mounted Police pucksters. Calgary came away victorious; Edmonton vowed revenge, and thus began a long procession of battling teams in both cities. Illustrated with archival photographs of the many teams and players from the far and near past, hockey fans throughout Alberta and across Canada will delight in this wonderful history of hockey's longest and greatest rivalry.
