Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Motor Transport Corps Executive Division Training Branch: Motor Truck Section Drivers Course Underlying all successful instruction must be the realization on the part of each man called upon to teach in any subject that all instruction is given for the student, not for the instructor. Obviously, then, the success of a teacher must be measured by the amount of his teaching which is converted into working knowledge by his students. The job, then, for every member of the instructing staff at every school is to put his information across so that the members of the class get it and are able to use it. The results obtained in frequent quizzes, oral test questions, or the performance of duties by the student, which require the application of material taught, are the fundamental measures of the success of the instructor in his work. Too much emphasis should not be placed on set written examinations, for a great deal of information may be acquired and used in a poll parrot manner, allowing a man to get high rating on a written examination, but a very low rating on any examination in which the student must apply the knowledge obtained in class room to the performance of a definite task. The instructor should also bear in mind that men learn most things through one, or more, of three senses: hearing, sight and touch, and that that instruction will be the most successful which permits the student to learn in the most ways. Furthermore, some men learn best by hearing, others, by touch, and still others by sight, so that no one method can be used with maximum success for...
