There shall the daisy rear its infant head, And fairy wild-flowers drink the dew of spring, While o er the turf that greenly wraps the dead Autumnal Winds their plaintive descant sing. Tis the same spot her rosy girlhood sought, Where, fresh from school, with bright companions gay, In maiden fancy, free from troubling thought, She work d her sampler, or retired to play. Dear is the quiet village church to me, Saxon, and simple, touch d with tender glooms; Lifting its window d form so gracefully As though twere conscious of encircling tombs. Whatever shade expressive clouds can throw, Or, hills wood-crested may around it cast, I love to view it in the vale below, Connect the present with our storied past. Oft have I paused, when lull d...
