Each wave came falling at thy feet, Just like an humbled child. So rages my tumultuous breast, So chafes my maniac will;--Speak! and these troubled seas shall rest, Speak; and the storm is still. THE DEAD BOY. Mother! little William lies Very still--his laughing eyes Look no more on thee and me; Though I speak, he will not hear--What may this, dear mother, be As I gaze, I almost fear. Though I stroke his silken hair, Touch his cheek, so pale and fair, Though his pretty mouth I kiss, Yet he minds not--why is this His tiny hand will nothing hold, And his fingers are so cold! William! wake!--it is not sleep, Surely, slumbers not so deep. Pretty baby! look at sis--Look at me, and wake, or I Shall my little playing miss; Wake, or darling sis will cry. I cannot...
