My boyhood home, in Peace Dale, Rhode Island, was just across the little lake from the great stone house where lived one of the greatest and most original geniuses America has produced, Rowland Gibson Hazard, metaphysician and manufacturer. He was perhaps the first great man upon whom my eyes ever fell. But not only did I see him almost daily until I went off to Yale College in 1890, I also saw the guests who came to his home. They included the authors and statesmen of America and Europe. It was no uncommon thing for a native of the little village of Peace Dale to pass such men as Herbert Spencer, William Ellery Channing, George Park Fisher and James B. Angell taking a morning stroll about the streets. When I was about twelve I first saw Edward Everett Hale and I saw him every summer thereafter. He had his summer home about four miles from our house, and used frequently to preach in the village church. I was ready for college in 1886, having fitted in the village high school, but was unable to matriculate until 1890 owing to family reasons. During these four years I was in the office of the Peace Dale Manufacturing Company, and during the last year of the four acted as secretary to Mr. Hazard, then in his eighty-eighth year.
