Secretaries w ill greatly a-sist photographer and manufacturer by giving dales and ful information a soon a, possible. Some time in its life, every association has a golden opportunity to attract recruits to its ranks. At the present time the P. A. of A. is allowing a golden opportunity to slip through its fingers, but this is not the first time this association has allowed golden opportunities to fade into oblivion. How about the copyright law What stand did the National take on that How about the license question We all know the schoolboy proposition the National made on that particular subject. There are many other questions of national note, photographically, that the P. A....
