Routledge India, New Delhi, 2014. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. 388 pp. This book examines a variety of themes that have determined the course of the politics of transformative struggles. The essays critique neoliberalism, ?primitive? accumulation, money, class inequalities, as well as aspects of capital?labour conflict. The volume highlights the contributions of movements by women, dalit and marginalized communities; peace movements; and environmental and agrarian struggles. It also ?appraises the role of internet in grassroots mobilizations and that of civil society networks in the making of participatory democracy.
