Excerpt: . . . officer and man in the ship I have the honor to command , during a most arduous and fatiguing service, that lasted for 18 hours, the whole of which time they were either at their guns or expecting every instant to be called to them. Our loss, I am extremely sorry to say, is very great in killed and wounded, and most of them the best men in the ship. What the enemys may be, from the nature of the service it is impossible to ascertain, though we know it to be very considerable , On the 21st March, 1809, Captain Maitland captured lEnfant de Patria of 640 tons, 8 guns, and 60 men; and two days afterwards, lAventurier of 4 guns and 30 men. These vessels were letters of marque; the former bound to the Isle of France, and the latter to the...
